Multi-activity days

Although primarily renowned as a shooting ground, we are becoming increasingly famous for the excellence of our multi-activity days. Our expertise within this area is unrivalled and our client list reads like a Who's Who of the business world.

The multi-activity event requires the integration of a number of important elements within the day to ensure its success. These include forward planning, organisational skills, and a venue large enough to allow the activities to take place in isolation of each other, but arranged in such a way as to make for the smooth and seamless changeover between each of them.

At our shooting grounds, our team of professional instructors will ensure that all aspects of your day will run smoothly, efficiently and safely, as would be expected from Holland & Holland.

Meet & Shoot

In today's competitive environment, companies strive to maximise the use of time. The 'Meet & Shoot' package allows companies to conduct a meeting for half a day, followed by a session of clay shooting in the afternoon. In the event that the shooting directly follows the meeting on the same day, then we waive the normal room hire charge.

Catering

Any outdoor activity is guaranteed to do one thing and that is to produce huge appetites during the day. In recognition of this, we will serve only the finest food to satisfy those hunger pangs.

From the start of the day, whether the call is for a simple bacon roll or a full English breakfast, to a snack lunch, finishing with a barbecue or a full three-course meal, we will provide the very best food available.

Our Safari room can host up to 100 guests for a formal meal or 150 for an informal buffet. For meetings, up to 200 can be seated 'theatre style'. Our smaller dining rooms are ideally suited for smaller groups.

During the summer months, weather permitting, guests can enjoy their barbecue on our outside terrace.

For larger parties up to 400 guests, a marquee can be provided, but whatever the size of your party, our catering will be up to the same high standard as the rest of the day.
